CRACK COLGATE TEAM OUTCLASSES HAMILTON IN FIRST HOME GAME

O. C. Anderson, of Football Fame, is Leading Scorer of Evening—Cowan is Mainstay and Shining Light of Buff and Blue on both Offense and Defense.

The first home game of the basketball season was played last Wednesday night in the Soper Gymnasium. Colgate defeated the Buff and Blue by a score of 34 to 23. The weather conditions delayed the starting of the game and also prevented the Maroon cheerers from following the team.

Varsity Slightly Outclassed

The game was characterized by a steady fight by both teams with Hamilton slightly outclassed in the rallies. The passwork of both teams was far from good and the Buff and Blue in particular seemed unable to handle the ball. Colgate tried many long shots, none of which availed them a point.

CAPTAIN BAUMLER.

Colgate came up this season with practically the same team that appeared against the Buff and Blue last year. The only change in the line-up was the substitution of N. G. Anderson in the place of Dwyer of last year's fame. The Maroon put up a fast game and managed to run up the points when the points were most needed. Captain Anderson was the highest scorer of the game, and had a record of fourteen points to his credit. Cottrell at center was at all times playing a good game and accounted for four field baskets.

Morrow Plays Well

The Hamilton line-up was the same that was used against Rochester. Morrow, who had injured his ankle in the Rochester game, was once more on the floor and scored four of Hamilton's seven baskets. Cowan, however was the big star for the Buff and Blue. He was the mainstay on both offense and defense and to his efforts can be credited the occasional bright spots in Hamilton's defense last Wednesday night. The Hamilton Five seemed unable to find the basket at critical moments, and time after time missed easy shots. Another striking fact was that they seemed unable to work the ball down into Colgate's territory.

Game Opens With Fast Play

The game opened with fast play on both sides, and the ball travelled from one end of the court to the other. Lawler had the honor of scoring the first point when he tossed a foul basket soon ofter the opening whistle. This small lead was immediately offset when, on a foul called against Hamilton, O. C. Anderson scored the point. Cottrell made the first basket. Morrow made a difficult one from the sidelines, which the Buff and Blue offset by missing several easy ones from under the basket. O. C. Anderson registered a dribble shot and shortly afterwards, Colgate called time out. Their plans were evidently good for the Maroon finished with a burst of speed that netted them three baskets in rapid suuccession. The score at the end of the half stood 16 to 7 in favor of Colgate.

Cowan Makes Sensational Shot

Three fouls were called on Hamilton and two on Colgate at the beginning of the second half. Cottrell and N. G. Anderson made baskets and Morow and Lawler kept the Buff and Blue in the running. O. C. Anderson intercepted a pass and added two points to the Maroon tally. Morrow, Lennihan, and Cottrell scored baskets in succession during a bit of rapid playing. The most sensational shot of the evening came at this point, when Cowan intercepted a pass and shot the basket after a brilliant dribble the length of the joor. Hamilton called time out. Cowan shot another basket, and Colgate came back with two more. Morrow ended the game with his fourth basket.

The score:

HAMILTON.	F.B.	F.P.	T.P.
Johnson, r.f.,	0	0	0
Morrow, l.f.,	4	0	8
Lawler, c.,	1	9	11
Cowan, l.g.,	2	0	4

PRESIDENT FERRY IS HONORED IN CHICAGO

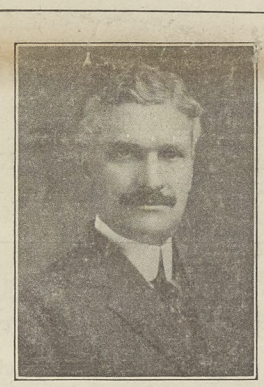
Elected President of Association of American Colleges at Annual Convention.

SUCCEEDS WESLEYAN PREX

At the annual meeting of the Association of American Colleges held in Chicago, January 8-10, President Frederick C. Ferry of Hamilton College was elected as president of the Association for the coming year to succeed President William A. Shanklin of Wesleyan University. President Shanklin is a Hamilton man in the class of '83, and is a member of Sigma Phi fraternity and Phi Beta Kappa.

A Worthy Honor

The Association of American Colleges is one of the largest organizations of its type in this country, including over 250 colleges on its membership list. During the past few years the Association has been increasing in both numbers and standing of the colleges which are a part of it and withhin a few years will probably include every college and university of the country.



PRESIDENT FERRY.

In bestowing this honor upon President Ferry, the Association has expressed the general opinion of the educators of the country as to the value of the work done by him along educational lines. At the present time, Dr. Ferry is one of the ranking mathematicians of the country, having published a number of articles and treatises on mathematics.

Graduate of Williams, 1888

From early in his life, he has been inclined to the life of a student and teacher. He received his preparation for college at Saratoga Springs and entered Williams College in the fall of '88. He was graduated from that institution with the class of '91, as its valedictorian and incidentally with the highest average of collegiate work that has ever been attained there. For three years after his graduation, he served as an instructor at Williams and then took up graduate work at Harvard University for a year.

Having completed his work at Har-

WILLIAMS WINS HOCKEY CONTEST

Score Close Victory Over Buff and Blue at Williamstown Rink—Finish Game in Darkness.

HAMILTON HANDICAPPED

On Saturday, the Hamilton Hockey Team met its first defeat of the season at the hands of Williams by a 3-2 score in a contest that was played half in daylight and half in darkness. The team did not arrive in Williamstown until after four o'clock, as the train was over two hours late, due to the heavy snow. The players were compelled to dress on the train and started the game immediately upon arriving. On account of the lateness in starting, darkness overtook the game before it was completed. This put both teams under a handicap and slowed the game up to a considerable extent during the second half. Rough ice and low sideboards on the rink also put the Buff and Blue at a disadvantage.

The game in the main was fast, and each team worked hard and displayed good team work. The play was characterized by a good deal of roughness and body checking in which Williams had the advantage as her team greatly outweighed the Buff and Blue.

First Half, Hamilton's

In the first half Hamilton outplayed Williams, holding her scoreless and caging two goals. Both scores were made by Thompson, who broke through Williams' defense and sent the puck into the net on difficult shots. During this period the puck changed hands pretty freely, but Williams seemed unable to advance far enough through our defense to make the necessary shot for a score.

In the second half darkness had fallen and both teams had difficulty in keeping the puck located. Williams took the offensive and forced Hamilton to defend her own goal most of the time. Her three tallies came at scattered intervals during this period and were the result of good teamwork on the part of the Purple forwards. Reeder, at goal, did some clever work and time after time stopped shots which seemed almost certain to be scores. Hamilton did not show the stamina which was in evidence the first half and was unable to open up holes in order to score.

Meet Again, February 18

Hamilton will meet Williams on the ice at Clinton on February 18, and without the handicaps which

Examinations

Life is going to omit this year the annual plea to the Freshmen and College to work diligently and pass their mid-years. It seems unnecessary to urge anyone to accomplish so obvious a duty. The college cannot afford and does not want to lose a man who is now in college. The issue is up to the undergraduates themselves.

Our Prex

The latest honor which has come to President Ferry brings with it a general good feeling on the part of the college and its alumni. The fact that Dr. Ferry, who is now President of the Association of American Colleges, is also the active head of this institution is one of our greatest prides these days.

We have done more or less patting ourselves on the back for the last three years as the result of the College Trustees selection for the head of the College after the resignation of Dr. Stryker. We are all proud of our Prex, whom we honor as a man who is our leader. This latest attribute to his standing among his College President Associates only proves our theory.

Prize Competitions

Ever since the war disorganized our college life, there has been a decline in the number of men that entered into competition for various prizes that are so generously offered. For the last two Commencements, during the announcement of honors and prizes for the year, "No award" and "No competition" were the decisions most frequently heard. This applies equally to all the prizes from the Maynard Entrance Prize to the orations open only to Seniors. Last year, even, the McKinney Prize Debate was not held.

This tendency shows a decline on the part of the students to participate in intellectual affairs—the very things for which they came to college. Furthermore, it denotes a lack of initiative and a careless attitude toward serious matters. While it will not make any difference in your pay check whether you have a Pruyn Medal or not, it will make a difference to yourself. The very fact that you left an opportunity to accomplish something go by, an opportunity to do something that is not in the regular course, will cause you to let other opportunities slip by which may mean a great deal. It is the tendency that is altogether too common—to do as little as possible and still get by. Out in the world this is apparent in the strikes and underproduction of both capital and labor. Both are trying to do as little as possible. If the college man is going to be an asset to the country, he must not set out in life with that spirit, and he should get the right start here in college.

Each man in Hamilton College should embrace every opportunity offered to compete for the various prizes. He should consider it a duty to see that his class does not fail to enter into live, intelligent competition. The prizes would then mean something, and would be an honor worth attaining.

The Alumni of this college are intensely interested in all that takes place here of an intellectual character. At the New York Alumni Dinner this very subject was discussed, and the lack of interest on the part of the men was lamented. It is up to the undergraduates to see that the traditions of the college in this repect are upheld, and the reputation which Hamilton has for keen intellectual competition shall not be lost.

vard, he continued his studies for three years at Clark University and then spent a year of study at various European Universities. He spent a considerable amount of time at the Universities of Berlin, and Gottingen in Germany, and at the University of Christiana in Norway.

In 1899, he returned to Williams College as an assistant professor in mathematics and three years later was promoted to a full professorship and made dean of the college. He served in this capacity with great success until he accepted the presidency of Hamilton College in 1917.

Member of Educational Societies

Since completing his studies, Dr. Ferry has become an active member of a number of educational societies in this country. At present he holds membership on the conference committee on the standards of colleges and secondary schools, the American Mathematical Society, the Mathematical Association of America, the New England Association of Teachers of Mathematics, and is a fellow of the Association for the Advancement of Science. Last fall, Dr. Ferry was appointed as a member of the college council of the New York State Board of Regents, and as a Custodian of the College Entrance Examination Board for a term of three years. President Ferry is also president of the Association of College Presidents, and president of the Association of Colleges of the State of New York.

President Ferry received the degree of Bachelor of Arts from Williams in 1891, an A. M. from Williams in 1894, and an A. M. from Harvard in 1895. He has also received the degrees of Ph. D. from Clark University in 1898, and Doctor of Science from Colgate University in 1909. He received the degree of Doctor of Laws in 1917 from both Hamilton College and Williams College.

INGERSOLL, MAKES RECORD

A recent edition of the Utica Herald-Dispatch contained the following announcement in regard to Ingersoll, ex-'21:

"Edward S. Ingersoll, a Hamilton College swimmer, established what is believed to be a local record here New Year's Day when, in an exhibition at the Utica Y. M. C. A., he swam the length of the tank there five and a quarter times under water. As the tank is 44 feet long, Ingersoll swam about 230 feet. He had gone the distance four times before, but on New Year's Day he made a determined effort to beat his own record, and established the 230 foot mark."

FIFTY=
and tortured by regrets

"DO you suppose," cried Napoleon, as he stood with Gourgaud on St. Helena, "Do you suppose when I wake at night I have not bad moments—when I think of what I was and what I am?"

He was fifty; and at fifty the race of men divides into two groups. There is the group of those who look back comfortably over the years, knowing that each year has yielded its measure of progress.

And there is the other group—the men who think: "If only I had it to do over again, how much better I could do it." They look back and say to themselves: "There was the turning point; if only I could have seen it in time."

To such men the night brings its bad moments—when they think of what they are and what they might have been.

To increase the number of men who, at fifty, can be satisfied with their careers, is the business of the Alexander Hamilton Institute.

85,000 men enrolled

The Alexander Hamilton Institute was founded ten years ago, with the specific purpose of giving men the all-round knowledge of Modern Business that fits them for executive responsibility.

It does for men in business what the law school does for men in law; or the medical school for men in medicine.

It has only one Course; it offers no training for specialized positions of limited opportunity.

In a ten-year period 85,000 men have enrolled in its Modern Business Course and Service. They are representative of every stratum and phase of business. More than 13,000 are corporation presidents.

Business and educational authority of the highest type are represented in the Institute's Advisory Council.

This Council consists of Frank A. Vanderlip, President of the National City Bank of New York, General Coleman duPont, the well-known business executive; John Hays Hammond, the eminent engineer; Jeremiah W. Jenks, the statistician and economist; and Joseph French Johnson, Dean of the New York University School of Commerce.

The remarkable percentage of college men

Two facts are noteworthy in the Institute's record. In the first place the average age of the men enrolled with it is slightly over thirty. Not to boys is its appeal, but to mature men, who reach the age when they realize that their careers will be made or marred by the record of the few years just ahead.

The second striking fact is the very large proportion of college men enrolled. Over 33% of them are college graduates.

You, who read this page, may have reached the point in your career where you want to make the next few years yield double progress.

Or you may be the sort of college man to whom younger men are frequently turning for advice.

In either case you owe it to yourself to know something more of the character and achievements of this great educational force.

A free book worth sending for

For the information of college men who are interested in better business the Institute has set aside a certain number of its 112-page book, "Forging Ahead in Business."

It is worth an evening's careful reading and it is free. The coupon will bring it; send for your copy today.

Carpe Diem

A competitive gabfest was held in Cal's stock exchange last Friday, January 12th. Mr. Thorpe, affirmative, and Mr. Van Norden, negative, entertained. The affirmative wore a handsome pair of horn-rimmed spectacles, which, coupled with his soothing voice, lent much dignity and grace to the occasion. The negative, whose most salient feature was a great, yellow silk handkerchief, accomplished the impossible, that is, he not only introduced humor into his debate, but he also introduced a debate into his humor. Mr. Thorpe was profound, but Mr. Van Norden was transcendent. As he himself said, he could not help refuting his opponent. Cal pulled a joke, and got his first laugh since he was awarded his key. To the surprise of all, he waived all further words, and excused the class.

Other social events have taken place. Pop Martin gave a dance to Monty Harper. That is, he promised him one, but the dance was mislaid, and some Sig, or other aesthete, gobbled it up as a D. U. chapter gobbles up athletes, or a Chi Psi Fresh man gobbles up Clinton girls. Pop was highly confidential, earnest, and voluble, as he is when trying to crawl out of something, but Harper's grief is unassuaged, and if he keeps on languishing, the Theta Delts bid fair to leave the crepe on the badges for another three weeks.

Talking about the Theta Delts, perhaps the college would be interested to know that they have two tables in their dining room. At one table sit the underclassmen and at the other sits Frank Fry and his brother upperclassmen who secure comfort by the use of gas masks, air coolers, and windshields.

Talking about tables, the Psi Upsilon fraternity has graced its board for a couple of nights by the presence of the photographer's fair emissary from the metropolis. God, how the Psi U's must need that dollar and a half. And, talking about the Psi U's, no matter how many men they have in their chapter, there is always a Gapp in their ranks. That was a rank pun, and we Hyde our face.

We agree with the emissary from White's that if the college life is anything like the college sidewalk, life at Hamilton must be full of ups and downs.

Mrs. King is aptly named. She surely is a prince. The College Skinn had better look to its laurels.

A good old maxim was borne out a week ago Sunday, when the minister's watch, soaring gracefully on high, illustrated very well the ancient saga: Tempus Fugit.

The Freshman Class has been likened to a youth, a debutante, and an old man. Were it not for our latest constitutional amendment, we should suggest from preeminence in in appropriateness, the simile of the babe and the bottle. However, in spite of prohibition the last car is still not the only thing full on Saturday nights, and furthermore the uphill crowds still seem to enjoy good spirits in and about 16 Carnegie.

Our little bird remarked that the laundry man in a fit of absent mindedness stopped at the D. U. house last week. He was repulsed.

Carpe Diem will depart from its usual custom, this week, and offer something in the line of mental stimulus. This consists of three puzzles. One is: Why did Schwarz, '20, raise his hand when Cal asked the names of those who didn't expect to be here next term. The second requires to know "why is Beatrice Batty?" and the third, which is a picture puzzle, asks the reader to find a good-looking face in last year's Hamiltonian.

Doctors Prescribe John's CASCARA Compound Tablets for Constipation

They have been prescribing them for years. Ask any prescription clerk...

John's Cascara Compound Tablets are the ideal agent for overcoming habitual constipation. IDEAL because they contain no irritating cathartics which apply the whip to the intestines, weaken the system and end by aggravating the very condition they were intended to relieve.

The gentle, thorough, laxative effect of Johns' Cascara Compound Tablets is due entirely to Johns' concentrated and refined extract of Cascara Sagrada, the "sacred bark" of the Aztecs, who knew its value in correcting constipation—the source of so much sickness and discomfort.

They relieve flatulence, nausea, vertigo, water brash, constipation and loss of appetite. They remove greasiness and sallowness of the complexion. They are a most efficient remedy for bilious attacks and sick headaches.

A Johns' Cascara Compound Tablet taken at night insures in the morning a natural and complete evacuation of the bowel contents. The continued use of Johns' Cascara Compound Tablets can be nothing but beneficial. Price, 25 cents.

1920 EXECUTIVE COUNCIL MEETS

Transact Many Important Items of Business—Approve Budgets for Various Departments.

COWAN ELECTED SECRETARY

The first meeting of the 1920 Executive Council was held at the home of Dr. A. P. Saunders on January 12th. Several important items of business were transacted, among which were the election of a secretary and treasurer, action on the budgets submitted by the managers, adoption of a policy toward the Charlatans and Debating, and the securing of a physician to attend football games and give medical assistance when necessary.

Those present were: Faculty members, Dr. Wood, Dr. Saunders, and Dr. Dale; alumni member, Sicard, '06; undergraduate members, Campbell, Cowan, and Van Kennen; Mr. Prettyman, Coach Ziehl, and the Managers of Undergraduaute Activities.

Cowan was unanimously elected secretary of the Association and immediately assumed his duties.

Mr. Coughlin Chosen Treasurer

In accordance with the understanding given to the members of the Association, at the last meeting when the Constitution was changed to permit the selection of a treasurer regardless of his affiliation with the Council, Mr. E. M. Coughlin was elected as the treasurer for the coming year.

It was decided that it would be wise to secure the services of a physician, who should attend all the football games, and render any medical aid necessary on the field. It was also determined if possible to have the same physician attend to minor injuries sustained in contests of the other sports. For this purpose the sum of fifty dollars was appropriated, to be placed in the hands of Mr. Prettyman, who should conduct the negotiations.

1919 Council Continue Revision

The question of continuing the revision of the Constitution was next discussed and it was determined to ask the undergraduate members of the 1919 Council to continue the wrok which they have so far advanced to its completion.

The managers' budgets were then taken under discussion and after much inquiry and argument were finally approved as follows: Football, $1,394; Baseball, $900; Track, $684; Basketball, $420; Hockey, $450; Musical Clubs, $50; Charlatans, $700; Intramural, $130; General, $100; for Doctor's Services, $50; Debate, $150.

It was decided that at the next meeting of the Association the Executive Council recommend that Intercollegiate Debate be no longer supported by the Association after this year.

The Manager of Charlatans was commissioned to discover the sentiments of that organization in regard to carrying its work independently of the Association.

The football schedule of seven games for 1920 was approved.

HAMILTON ALUMNI IN NEW YORK BANQUET

Leroy B. Sherman, '84, Elected President of Association for Coming Year.

PREX IS SPEAKER

The Hamilton College Alumni Association of New York City held its 52nd annual dinner at the Hotel Savoy in that city Friday night, January 16. Robert A. Patterson, '87, presided. President Frederick C. Ferry, Dr. Frederick M. Davenport, and Warren I. Lee, '99, were the speakers. Leroy B. Sherman, '84, was elected president for the coming year. One hundred and eleven men were present.

"Davy" Speaks on Tolerance

The first speaker was Professor Davenport, who spoke on Americanism, free-speech, tolerance, and truth. Mr. Patteson then read a letter from Elihu Root, '64, who expressed great regret that illness precluded his attendance at the dinner which ordinarily he would have attended as "a matter of course." About two dozen slides showing things on and around the Hill were thrown upon a screen. At this time the names of the Hamilton men who were killed in the war were flashed before the assemblage, who stood and sang "Carissima."

Warren I. Lee, '99, who recently took the oath of New York State Assemblyman, was the next speaker. Following Mr. Lee's speech there was a discussion concerning the changing of the time of holding the Clark Prize oration contest. A motion was then adopted that the Trustees consider holding it during Commencement Week, instead of at the period when it is now held. Several alumni expressed lamentations over the fact that so few men are entering the Clark Prize and Kellogg Debate competitions.

The last speaker on the program was Dr. Ferry, who spoke on the present conditions and policies of the college. He also gave statistics concerning the entrance requirements and courses, and the harmonious co-operation among the faculty.

The dinner ended with "Carissima."

COMPLETE PLANS FOR 1921 JUNIOR PROM

Chairman Wynkoop of Class Committee Announces Final Decision in Regard to Festivities.

DAMON TO FURNISH MUSIC

Plans for the 1921 Prom are now complete and all indications point to its being one of the greatest Proms ever staged by any class on the Hill. February 2nd, 3rd, and 4th are bound to be long remembered dates by many a fair damsel and all of the fellows dwelling at Hamilton-on-the-Hill.

Chairman Wynkoop and his efficient committee have not left a single stone unturned to make these three days grand and glorious ones.

Charlatans Start Program

Monday, the initial day of Prom, will see the festivities started by a Charlatans performance in the Park Theater, Utica. The Charlatans will present the "Witching Hour," a play which is bound to please all. On Monday night the different crowds will entertain at their respective houses. The Dekes, Psi U's, and Chi Psis are entertaining alone this year and will likely have open house on both nights on which the crowds entertain.

Tuesday afternoon the Sophomore Class will hold its annual tea dance at the Chi Psi House. Carrington Macey is the chairman of the committee, which will put on this dance, which will serve as an appetizer for the Prom itself. The biggest event of them all, the 1921 Junior Promenade, will be staged in the Soper Gymnasium at 8:30 P. M. The Gym will not be recognizable to those who are at present used to seeing its drab interior while in the throes of compulsory athletics. It will be decorated in an original and unique style after the ideas of "Zip", whose ideas are known to be good ones. Damon, of Rochester, and his "demons of the jazz" are booked to furnish the stuff which will keep one's feet moving through the "forty mile walk" of the night. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. King, of Commons, who promises to give us some punch which will make the ex-Haig Brothers turn their faces away with shame and envy.

Thirty-two dances and six extras, all of the latest music, are the number engraved on the dance cards, which were made by the B. K. Elliott Company of Philadelphia. The Prom Week Books are also in the course of construction by the same great engraving company.

Musical Clubs Wednesday

Wednesday will see the survival of the fittest still enjoying the gay time. In the afternoon the Combined Musical Clubs will stage a concert in Commons Hall. Leaders Peters and Turner of the Glee and Instrumental Clubs both have large personnels this year and good snappy selections to get off.

Wednesday night the various crowds will again entertain at their houses.

Prom tickets can now be secured from any of the members of the Prom Committee. The price is eight dollars per couple. The committee requests that all men buy these tickets as soon as possible.

CHARLATANS PLAY "WITCHING HOUR"

Announce Program for Prom Performance to be Held at Park Theatre in Utica.

AMBITIOUS UNDERTAKING

The Charlatans will present their first performance of the season 1919-1920 at the Park Theater, Monday afternoon, February 2, at 2:15. The cast has been hard at work since the first of December rehearsing "The Witching Hour," a four-act drama by Augustus Thomas. An attempt is being made through Dr. Ferry to have Mr. Thomas present at this performance of his celebrated play.

The theme of the play has to do with mental telepathy, and is worked out through a carefully written dialogue and convincing action. The play was a tremendous success in its initial performance in 1907 in the Hackett Theater, New York City, and has become one of the model plays of the American stage. In many text books on playwrighting it has been used to illustrate excellent and effective technique.

Costumes Specially Designed

The cast is one of the best that has ever represented the Charlatans, and contains an abundance of new material. Although the Prom performance will be the first one of the season, the cast will have the advantage of playing in a large and well equipped theater. The stage settings to be used have all been made by the stage manager and his assistants; the new lighting equipment, recently purchased by the Charlatans, will be used; and the costumes for the women have been specially made for this performance.

A play of this type is a new venture for the Charlatans and is a more serious and difficult piece of work than the College farces presented annually until the last two or three years. In some respects the work is more taxing than the one-act plays presented recently. It is earnestly hoped that the college will support this departure to a man, for much of the future success of the Charlatans depends upon this production. The theatre seats 1200 and at least one-third of the seats should be filled by the college.

Tickets Now on Sale

Tickets are now on sale and all the crowds have bought blocks of seats. A block is also being reserved for the Faculty, and these may be procured at Coughlin's office. For the benefit of the Utica people tickets will be on sale at the Hotel Utica. Seats will be reserved for the high school students of Utica and Clinton in the first balcony. Altogether a large attendance is expected from outside of the college.

The following is the cast in the or-
